URGENT NOTICE

RULING CONFIRMS NEU NOT RECOGNISED TO NEGOTIATE OR COLLECTIVELY BARGAIN FOR SCHOOL SUPPORT STAFF

GMB, the union for school support staff, is constantly working to get you the respect you deserve. You are professional, hardworking people and our schools cannot function without your efforts.

We are able to strive to make work better because we have legally defined 'union recognition' to negotiate on your behalf. NEU does not.

This position has been confirmed by a ruling from the Trades Union Congress (TUC). They state that GMB (and our fellow unions Unison and Unite) are the only unions with rights to collectively bargain for school support staff.

The TUC has ordered NEU to pay GMB and other unions over £150,000 in financial compensation.

There are a huge number of issues that need tackling for people working in schools. Unions representing teachers have their job to do, and so does GMB on behalf of our fantastic school support staff members.

We will keep working away until you get the respect you deserve for the incredible job you do.
